

Speaking to Jesus

Now Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they spoke to Jesus about her. Mark 1:30

There is a lot of talking going on these days, but very little conversation. So many talking heads, speaking over one another, demanding to be heard but doing very little listening. Too often we find ourselves jockeying for a response to what someone else is saying rather than truly hearing them out, listening to understand the other. Rather than noticing others, we too often are giving them notice.

This passage from Mark is the account of Jesus healing Peter's mother-in-law. Andrew, James, and John upon noticing this woman's condition, immediately speak to Jesus about her. Jesus in turn comes and raises her up. It is a beautiful account of what prayer does. Prayer is being alert to the condition and circumstances of others. Prayer is also about speaking to Jesus about others.

Praying Attention. Andrew and company notice her, they see her condition. It happens as we live out the day among others and intentionally have our eyes up. Too often distracted with our eyes on a device whether it be the smartphone in our hands or the computer at our desks or the television in our den, we are gripped by the virtual presence of others, rather than the actual presence of the live person in the room with us. Perhaps the virtual interactions are more enticing or perhaps more preferred because they require so little from us, all the while commanding our attentions away from the real lives and needs before us. Praying attention is the realization that Jesus is among us in the real lives around us, and often in the least of them (Matthew 25:31-40). What if we intentionally took time to look around, praying attention, asking to have Holy Spirit guided vision and conversation with others in the room? At times, it may be a simple greeting, acknowledging another person's existence. At other times, it may be a willingness to be slow to speak and instead giving another person the gift of listening to understand.

Speaking to Jesus. This is where it gets really good. It says, once the trio noticed her condition, immediately they spoke to Jesus about her. We can speak to Jesus about the person we encountered and listened to. Just as Andrew, James, and John had Jesus with them, we too have Him immediately with us, present in us by the Holy Spirit He has given us. We are able to immediately raise the name of the other to Jesus and seek His counsel, comfort, healing, and encouragement on their behalf. We may even become so enamored with speaking to Jesus about them, that we pray with them, speaking to them about Jesus.

Praying attention and speaking to Jesus about others is not an obligation or a duty, but a delight and privilege. CS Lewis reminds us about such conversations with others. "There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal... Next to the Blessed Sacrament itself, your neighbor is the holiest object presented to your senses."<sup>1</sup> May our lives spend generous amounts of time in conversation with others as we pray attention and speak to Jesus!

Reformation Chili Cookoff WINNER!

We had ourselves a grand ole chili tastin' & kickin' good time, and happy to announce the next PLC chili chef extraordinaire and winner of the prestigious Chili Pepper Award – the one and only – Allyson Baney, crafter of chili #7, Sinner's Stew!

Congrats to our all our excellent competing chili chefs for sharing their culinary talents! We also have some superb cornbread bakers in this congregation – applause to you!! We couldn't have done it without the help and coordination of our Fellowship Team which seems to make every event here so much fun!

Family Promise News

Thank you to all who donated groceries, made delicious dinners or served in hosting positions during our Family Promise week in October. We are always in awe of how God is working. Pastor Gail and garden group have been steadily working on the Path this season. Here's Gail's story:

Decided to run out to the Path last night to show Myron how much we got done out there yesterday. Found drip lines missing and water shooting at both ends of the path. It got dark too quickly for us to fix it. Texted Larry Fagge when we got home and he met me out there just before noon. We got three of them fixed. What a blessing he is. And while we were out there last night, Ray, one of the Family Promise guests, came out to visit. So we sat out there on a bench for a little bit in the dark and had a blessed conversation. He told me he liked the quiet of the Path, so I asked him if he knew the story behind it and he said no. I shared about Jesus' resurrection and the 40 days he walked on Earth before he went back to heaven. Cool, he said. Who knows why those drip lines had to break, or why I felt like I had to drive out there last night?! 🙏 Amen...

The raffle drawing will be held Nov 17 at fellowship time – Good luck to all and thank you for supporting shipping costs in this way!

Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection... Romans 6:4-5

On Sunday, November 3rd, we will remember those who have fallen asleep in Christ this past year (from last November 2023). Those who were members of this congregation will be automatically included. If you would like to have another loved one named at this time, please print their name on the All Saints Day form in the entry area starting on Sunday, October 20th. Their names will be read during the prayers of the congregation, along with a candle lit and placed in the baptism font.

Saved Youth Retreat Wrap-Up

In a culture that celebrates sin... In a time in which darkness and death are glamorized, even glorified... When the truth is exchanged for lies...which you not only are expected to accept, but believe and adopt... When the self is idolized above all else... when self-care, self-love, self-focused feelings are placed above the need for a Savior... When the talk of that Savior is ridiculed, mocked or twisted... We pause. We go to Him. To the Word. And we remember:

What are we saved from? Who saves? And what are we saved for...now and in the future?

From Washington, Montana, Idaho and Oregon, 48 Junior High and High School Students, with almost 30 adults, gathered at Shoshone Mountain Retreat in mid-October to ask these questions, to pray and study the Word together, to fellowship, serve, sing, laugh and enjoy God's beautiful creation and each other's company, making new friends and together rooting ourselves in the Mighty One who saves.

Romans 6:23: For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

We are saved from death. We are saved by Jesus. We are saved for eternal life in Christ Jesus, and, until He calls us home, we are saved for joining with Him, sharing His message, hope and love here, where He has purposefully and powerfully placed us.

Those who believe have been saved from the penalty of sin. We have been justified by Jesus.

Those who believe are being saved from the power of sin. We are being sanctified by the Spirit.

And those who believe will be saved from the presence of sin. We will be glorified by God.

Thank you all for your prayers for this event! We are already in the early stages of planning next year's Youth Retreat and are looking forward to sharing more and joining with you again next time!

Sabbatical 2025

In 2025 Pastor Jon will be taking a Sabbatical in accord with PLC's Bylaws. The council initially approved the Sabbatical at their September 2023 meeting. Due to life circumstances, the Sabbatical was re-approved at the October 2024 meeting. In this recurring newsletter article, we will share the ongoing plans and process as we prepare for this gift of time and renewal for Pastor Jon and for the congregation. We will also attempt to address questions and entertain suggestions as we move forward.

This month, we share a portion of PLC's Sabbatical Policy* to begin communicating the general Purpose and Process of the sabbatical.

*A pastor is eligible for a three-month Sabbatical after serving a congregation for five consecutive years, three of which must be served at Peace Lutheran Church, and then every fifth year thereafter. Following the end of a Sabbatical, the pastor is required to make a commitment to serve Peace Lutheran Church for an additional two years to ensure that neither the pastor nor congregation uses the Sabbatical time for seeking a change in pastorate.**

PLC's policy reflects the belief that a regular rhythm of sabbatical (every 5 years). As our policy states, this is not a time for seeking a pastoral change. On the contrary, it is intended to provide for the renewal and health of our pastor as well as the ongoing congregational practice of the priesthood of all believers.

PURPOSE

*Sabbaticals are intended to allow our own spiritual leaders to recuperate and be renewed. (1 Kings 19 touchingly describes what might be considered the first ministerial Sabbatical.) Pastors can reflect without the day-to-day crush of business, and learn, taking advantage of insights prompted by those very reflections. Sabbaticals also offer the opportunity for the congregation to stop and reflect on their function and mission. Sabbaticals foster an appreciation for the serving pastor, and allow God even more opportunity to bless, renew and refresh the pastor.**

PROCESS

*The pastor must determine the course of his/her own Sabbatical. Church Council co-ordination is essential with respect to jointly devising an interim ministry plan with the pastor. While an ordained pastor may be contracted to serve during part of the Sabbatical period, it is also important that the members of the congregation... to use their God-given talents to serve as worship leaders, preachers, and provide visitation to those who are hospitalized or homebound, a practice that Peace already employs during pastor's vacation time, and LCMC encourages as a priesthood of all believers.**

In the coming weeks, a Sabbatical Team will be assembled by Pastor Jon in collaboration with the church council liaison, Tammi Jenkins. This team will work to prepare and communicate the dates, plans, process, and prayers for the sabbatical.

NEXT STEPS:

- The Sabbatical Team will create an Interim Ministry Plan. This plan will arrange for pastoral coverage during the sabbatical leave
- Establish timeline for the sabbatical
- Communicate the process, answer questions, and update progress at monthly council meetings
- Present initial plan at Annual meeting in January and continue to communicate regularly with congregation in newsletter articles and information sessions.

*A copy of the complete PLC Sabbatical Policy (CR9.01) is available upon request.
