

"Come to Me" — Jesus

You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; it is these that testify about Me; and you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life. (John 5:39-40)

I love studying the Bible. I love scouring over passages and looking up meanings of words and names in the original languages of Hebrew and Greek. I love nuances and semantics... they matter. I love the poetry, the imagery, the imagination of the various authors of the Bible – all of course inspired by the Holy Spirit from Genesis to Revelation.

And yet, I am cautioned by Jesus' words spoken to those like me of His day who also loved searching the scriptures. Jesus warns of the danger of being so full of scholarship that one can become unwilling for relationship. The proverbial 'missing the forest for the trees' comes to mind. It makes me wonder about those first followers of Jesus with no tablets (of either paper or the iPad variety). No Gideon's New Testament available to them (remember the ones you used to get at school?). Simply a carpenter/Rabbi who says, "Follow me" or "Come to Me" or "Come away with Me" and immediately they drop what they are doing and begin a new thing, learning and living a new life by being with Jesus.

Jesus is the Word in flesh (John 1:14) and so any time with the Word is time with a person and is about a 24/7 way of life not simply a code of conduct or a moral compass or a set of instructions on how to have your best life now. It is a dramatic transformation of lifestyle. Peter, James, and John, leave their job security at the docks, and begin a nomadic journey with Jesus. Remember, "The Son of man has no place to rest his head" (Matthew 8:20) walking, eating, sleeping, ministering, learning from Him as they are with Him.

St. Ignatius (a contemporary of Martin Luther) practiced a way of being with Jesus that began with a self-reflective question, "How do I come today?" How do I come to be with Him, in His Word. What provisos do I set up before setting off with Jesus? Conditions related to security (financial, material, sustenance) often carry weight as I consider following. I may tend to cloak my conditions in more religious tones, substituting religiosity for authenticity, instead of actually learning and living the way of Jesus. How much searching of scripture do I wrongly equate with actually following, actually being with Him?

Jesus beckons each of us, "Come to Me... learn from Me" an invitation to walk with a person, not just a personality; to learn with and from Him, not simply a collection of information about Him; an invitation for an ongoing transformation of our hearts, minds, and actions, which come from being in the actual proximity of Jesus who has filled us with His Holy Spirit. As the body of Christ our fellowship with Him is intrinsically connected to our fellowship with one another (1 Corinthians 12, Galatians 5) empowered, gifted, and bearing the fruit of Holy Spirit as we learn and live His way, truth, and life.

Welcome New Members & Annual Meeting Roundup!

We had another joyful worship on Jan 19, and received 18 new members totaling 12 households. Please warmly welcome Lee & Gaynell Coppess, Nimue Frye, Walter & Stacy Horn, Paul Johnson, Jennifer Klatt, Tim & Roxanne Martwick, Mauri Mosman, Sandra Stiles, Ron & Michelle VonWahlde, Mike & Hilary Weesner, Ann Wylie, and Jeff & Evi Zeigler!

+ + +

What a phenomenal Annual Meeting with 83 members present, new council members, nominating team, and delegates elected, a proposed budget that passed with flying colors, and a joyous look back on 2024 while viewing a great video put together by Pastor Jon. Our Pastor took time to recognize all that serve in one capacity or another and nearly everyone was standing by the time he was through, BUT we would be remiss not to mention how thankful and grateful we all are to Pastor Jon in the many ways he serves the church. He is a true Shepherd of the Word and servant. Yes, there are many things seen, but those unseen things are a daily occurrence like rushing out the door to visit someone in need, calm words and uplifting reassurances, those magnificent joy breaks of singing and playing guitar in his office or slipping into the sanctuary to play the piano, laughter filled zoom calls to connect with the wider church, committed community involvement (Day of Prayer, Right to Life march, Ministerial, etc.), the deep faith, approachability, and genuine humanness. We are indisputably blessed to have the Rev. Dr. Jonathan Anderson as our pastor in this body of believers. – Lynn Affeldt

Ecumenical Food Kitchen

Thanks for donating food and/or serving at the Ecumenical Food Kitchen at First Presbyterian, CDA, in Jan. A tasty beef stew luncheon was served to 20 folks. We're scheduled to serve two more times this year on May 1 and Sep 4. Thanks to all for supporting this important outreach ministry!

Special Giving Guideline

Peace Lutheran supports many organizations through benevolence dollars built into our budget, and your passionate generosity is so appreciated! A kind reminder to refrain from giving PLC a designated gift to support an organization, but rather, give directly to that organization yourself. We are unable to give a specific gift to a benevolence partners/organization to regift on your behalf. For instance, if I want to give money to the Post Falls Library, I don't write Peace Lutheran a check to run through their accounting and send it for me. I know this can sometimes be confusing as Peace supports so many wonderful ministry partners and our scope of focus is wide. We also maintain several funds that are restricted in their use (designated for a purpose). You may always designate giving to any of our current 19 funds (ex: Uganda Mission, Capital, Scholarship, Dorcas, etc.). Please let me or Amy Birge know if you have any questions. Thank you! – Lynn Affeldt

Yearly Planning Day

Church Staff will be off-site for their annual planning day on the morning of Feb 10. There are already several events on our calendar for 2025! If you are planning an event this year, please let us know so we can secure your date and time. The Dorcas Quilting ladies will be here that morning but have the front doors locked for their security. If you are coming by, please go around to the fellowship door, knock loudly, and identify yourself then the ladies may put you to work!

Valentine's Day Cookies for Mission!

Our Uganda Medical Mission Team is preparing to return to Uganda this year, and plans for travel are being made for – APRIL! The team held a great off-site fundraiser last year and baked Valentine's Day cookies that were beautifully decorated and even delivered on Valentine's Day! The word got out and now we have folks that want to get in on this tasty treat to share with loved ones, family and friends – and best of all – to help support our medical mission. While Maren and team members have already begun to prepare, we're holding a special baking/decorating day here at Peace on Feb 13, at 10 am. Check in with Maren about how you can help that day. More details are coming in the Sunday announcements about purchasing cookies!

Pastor Jon and Worship Team have begun preparing for the Lenten season, and all staff will observe Lenten respite on Feb 17, therefore the church office will be closed that day.

Why Read the Old Testament?

By Karen Robison

In the second month of the year, many New Year's Resolutions may have already slowly slipped from our daily habits. Perhaps you wanted to read the Bible more this year but, among all the names, rules, lists and sacrificial details in the Old Testament...you wondered: why read the Old Testament at all?

The Old Testament lays the foundation for the New Testament. How often do you start a book in the middle? The Old Testament introduces us to God and establishes a foundation of the events, laws, covenants and promises that guides us in understanding the New Testament...and life today.

The Old Testament contains many detailed prophecies that come true in the New Testament, all proving the Bible's authenticity and the absolute power and sovereignty of God. Some examples include: Jesus' place of birth described in Micah 5:2, His manner of death, foretold in Psalm 22 and predicted as a part of God's plan in Genesis 3:15, His resurrection, alluded to in Psalm 16:10 and many details of His ministry, for example in Isaiah 42:1-9, 53:3-7

The Old and the New Testament compliment each other as the Old Testament predicts the Messiah (Isaiah 53) while the New Testament reveals who He is: Jesus Christ (John 4:25-26). The Exodus 12 Passover lamb (2 Chronicles 35, Ezra 6:20) is Jesus, the Lamb of God in John 1:29. The Old Testament records the giving of God's Law while Jesus is seen to have fulfilled the Law in Matthew 5:17 and Hebrews 10:9. Romans 3:19 reveals the law was meant to expose sin, not save, point to Jesus as Savior. The Old Testament shows how we were separated from God due to our sin (Genesis 3) and the New Testament shows how we can be restored and at peace with God, through Jesus, His Son (John 3:16, Romans 3-6).

The Bible as a whole (66 individual books written over 1,500 years) is unified and active, inspired by God (2 Timothy 3:16) and in it, God reveals Himself to us. Throughout it, we see our just and holy God faithfully calling people to Himself, not because we deserve it or can earn it, but because He is loving and merciful and He provides the Way for us.

The Bible as a whole (yes, even the Old Testament!) is a book all about Jesus. Jesus Himself explains in Luke 24:27 how He is in "all the Scriptures." See, the Old Testament shows why we need Jesus and points to Him. It prepares us for Him and shows us foreshadows of Christ, who was there in the beginning with God (John 1:2). If you are stuck in a challenging section of the Old Testament, I encourage you to keep going. Ask: what is this revealing about God? His plan of redemption? Where is there good news? Is Christ being depicted here? What do I learn about humanity and myself?

Both the Old and the New Testaments were given "to make us wise unto salvation" (2 Timothy 3:15) and we can find great hope in reading God's Word and drawing near to The Word, who is Jesus.

Romans 15:4: For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

8:30 Sunday Study: Nehemiah

The Book of Nehemiah is one of the history books of the Bible, it continues the story of Israel's return from Babylonian captivity, and the rebuilding of Jerusalem. In addition to physically building, Nehemiah spiritually builds up the people through worship, prayer, reading and adhering to the Word of God. As we travel this new year, let's join together to study God's Word, ensuring that our foundation is secure - built on Him, and let's encourage one another as we work together to honor God.

Join us each Sunday at 8:30 through Feb 9. Philippians will be next beginning on Feb 16 – Mar 9 (see page 7 for info).

Kid Zone Update: Students are learning about who we are in Jesus, with the help from the alphabet! So far, we have learned: A is for Adopted, B is for Branch, C is for Citizen and D is for Dwelted-in! This is who we are in Christ Jesus!

Serendipity Wed Bible Study in February

This bible study pauses for all questions, we ponder, and we listen, so we don't move very fast! It will be safe to say that we won't begin the book of Acts until the 1st week of March (Ash Wed). After all the teachings that His disciples received, we want to know what they did with them. How did receiving the Holy Spirit benefit them? What did God lead them to do? After we wrap up John the next few weeks, there is an idea to address some questions before we begin Acts, such as questions on free will, the presence of evil, and the anti-Christ. All are invited to join us anytime this month as we transition. We have men, women and couples participating...the nicest group you can imagine! Come and be blessed! – Pastor Gail

CARING CREW Team Members Needed!

The Caring Crew is a team of PLC members who are devoted to caring for members of our congregation who, for various reasons are currently unable to attend. Team members pray for, call, visit, and share communion during monthly visits.

We are currently in need of 4-5 additional team members.

If you would like to know more about the team or if you or someone you know are in need of a Caring Crew visit, please contact Pastor Jon, (208)765-0727.

Read the Bible in a Year! It's not too late to join!

All are invited to read the Bible, chronologically, with a group of friends here at Peace and from the greater community. This group is following The Bible Recap chronological plan and listening to a short, daily recap podcast highlighting God's character displayed in the day's text. Each day's Bible reading is approximately 12 minutes long and each recap is about 10 minutes long. Then the group meets on the last Saturday of every month for discussion and fellowship – there were 16 people gathered at Ruth's home Jan 25! Contact Karen Robison or Candy Vervair for more information and join us!

Save the Date: Sun, Mar 2 ~ PLC Fellowship Time

Those Fellowship Team ladies are planning a Mardi Gras/Fat or Shrove Tue surprise after worship. Shrove Tue (originally Shrive, meaning to administer the sacrament of confession to or absolve) has spiritual roots and is a final celebration before penitential Lent and fasting begins. Pancakes are often served to rid the house of tempting fat (butter) and sweets. A potluck is planned for this event. What "fat" treat will you bring?
